

NAME _____

3rd Grade
EARTH SCIENCE

1. Jimmy is checking the difference in temperatures in the morning, at Noon and the afternoon. What tool could he use?
 - A. Ruler
 - B. Thermometer
 - C. Magnifying glass
 - D. Microscope

2. Sarah wants to know if ice melts faster during the day or at night. She should...
 - A. Put ice outside on a rainy day
 - B. Put ice outside during the day and at night
 - C. Put one in the shade and one in the sun
 - D. Put ice out only at night

3. Which of the following heats the air in our atmosphere?
 - A. The sun
 - B. The clouds
 - C. The earth's surface
 - D. Air pressure

4. Using the temperature graph, which statement is Not true?

Temperatures of Large Cities

	AM	NOON	PM
BOSTON	65°	78°	85°
LOS ANGELES	68°	80°	90°
KANSAS CITY	75°	85°	95°

- A. It is usually warmer in the afternoon than in the morning.
- B. It is always warmer in the morning than at Noon.
- C. It is always cooler in the morning