

McPherson High School
Class Expectations
2008 - 2009

Instructor Stacy Hall

Class Ceramics

Period

Course Description:

This advanced course consists of developing skills in clay forming by hand methods and wheel throwing. Historical references will be used throughout each unit. Design concepts will be studied over the functional and decorative methods of ceramic pottery.

Materials needed for the class:

Materials needed upon advance notice: 5 x 7 sketchbook, pencil/pen. The student is responsible for the clay tools checked out.

Types of activities taking place in your classroom:

Lecture, Hands on, reading assignments, critiques, sketching

How students will be evaluated:

The student will be evaluated on: Punctuality (to class & for assignment due dates), daily participation, attitude/cooperation, critiques, quiz's, unit exams, completed assignments, display objectives in a effective manner.

Discipline rules and expectations:

The students are:

Expected to take advantage of the learning process by avoiding disruptive/socially unacceptable actions. To be punctual to class with required supplies BEFORE the bell rings. (30 minute detention will be served for each unexcused tardy. Unexcused absence will result in a 55 minute detention)

Responsible for seeing me about make-up work BEFORE class begins or after clean up at the end of the hour. (5 points deducted for each day the work is late unless PRIOR arrangements are made.) One day of makeup is allowed for each excused absence.

Not to bring food, candy, drinks, gum, of any kind to this class.

Consequences for inappropriate classroom behavior:

If inappropriate behavior is evident the student will:

Be asked to correct behavior.

Serve a minimum detention of 30 minutes before school the following morning unless PRIOR arrangements are made. The time will be doubled once/ parents notified.

If detention is not served, then an office referral will occur.

Extreme misbehavior exhibited will result in an immediate office referral

Additional Comments

I am available for conferencing at 8:00-8:15 and 3:26-3:40.

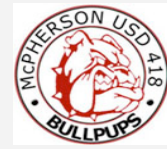

Instructor's Name

Stacy Hall

Name of Class:

Ceramics

McPherson High School
Class Expectations
2008 - 2009

Instructor Stacy Hall

Class Ceramics

Period

I have read and understand the Classroom Expectation:

Parent/Guardian signature

Date

Student signature

Date