Instructor Gentry Nixon

Class Developmental English

Period 2nd hour

Course Description:

This course will provide a program of study for students who have difficulty with basic literacy skills in the regular English program, but who are not necessarily classified as special education students. Emphasis will be on basic literacy skills, writing and grammar. Students who successfully complete the full year of Developmental English will be placed in English I as sophomores.

Materials needed for the class:

Three-ring binder with dividers and loose-leaf paper to be left in the classroom.
Pens and/or pencils

Types of activities taking place in your classroom:

The focus of the class will be vocabulary, grammar, and writing.

How students will be evaluated:

The students will be evaluated on the basis of participation, turning work in on time, and test/quiz scores.

Discipline rules and expectations:

1. Students are responsible for their own actions.
2. Students' conduct in this class should be a matter of common sense. Success will be determined by their ability to keep up with assigned work, participation in class, and respectable conduct in class.
3. Students' input will be valued as long as it expresses self-control and respect for others.
4. Students' should be prepared with pen, book, paper, and any assignments.
5. Work is expected to be handed in on time. Late assignments will receive a zero.
6. Students who have been absent need to see me the first day they are back to get their assignments.
7. Tests and quizzes need to be made up on the day you return to class or other arrangements made.

Consequences for inappropriate classroom behavior:

All school policies will be followed including rules dealing with cell phones, ipods, and other technological equipment use, dress code, attendance, tardies, and plagiarism.
