

Instructor

Class Help Room

Period

Course Description:

Mrs. Fiedler
Help Room
McPherson High School
2008 - 2009

Welcome to the 2008 - 2009 school year. In order for the year to be successful, it is important that I share with you some of the expectations for the class.

Materials needed for the class:

Types of activities taking place in your classroom:

How students will be evaluated:

Daily work & Points

Assignments should be recorded in your agenda book each day. Daily points will be given for bringing agenda book, library book, and unfinished assignments to class. There will also be points awarded based on active participation and effort. You will receive 10 points for bringing your filled out agenda book, 10 points for participation and effort in class, and 5 points for bringing in unfinished work to class. Extra credit may be given.

Grading Scale

90-100 A
80-89 B
70-79 C
60-69 D
59 F

Discipline rules and expectations:

Expectations

1. Be in seat and ready to learn when bell rings.
2. Bring unfinished assignments, tests, or quizzes to class, as well as a library book.
3. Be respectful of other people and their property.
4. Be actively working on assignments, and/or studying throughout class period.
5. Agenda book should be with you each day and must be filled out with daily assignments.

Consequences for inappropriate classroom behavior:

Consequences for Disruptions in Class

1. Detention (15 or 30 minutes) to be served the following day at instructor's discretion.
2. Referral to the office for severe disruptions.

Additional Comments

Instructor

Class Help Room

Period

I am looking forward to a successful school year.
Together we will succeed!

If you have any questions concerning these policies please call or e-mail me at jennifer.fiedler@mcpherson.co

Instructor's Name

Name of Class:

Help Room

I have read and understand the Classroom Expectation:

Parent/Guardian signature

Date

Student signature

Date